

Father of All

Text: Thomas D.M. Latta *

Music: César Franck

Father of all, hear when we call,
Grant us again the blessing of Thy tender grace.
Tell us the story, of Thy wondrous glory;
Now and forever, bountiful Giver.
Guide us, lead us, safe to Thy holy place.

To Thee our Father dear, we look and know no fear;
Where e'er Thou art Thy loving child will ever be.
And as the vision clear, tells of Thy love most near,
May we in Thee confide, and in Thy truth abide.
Perfect and free, so shall our song of praise rise unto Thee.

* Thomas D.M. Latta was a lawyer originally from Athabasca, Alberta. He was introduced to Christian Science by attending a lecture while living in Vancouver. He later relocated to Toronto where he continued to practice law. Latta wrote many articles that appeared in the Christian Science Sentinel and Journal between 1937 and 1966. His testimony can be found in the September 30, 1944 Sentinel (Vol. 46, Issue 40.)
