

Give Thanks and Sing

Text: Jean Anne Shafferman

Music: DOVE OF PEACE, Patti Drennan

O come, ye thankful people come;
to God your voices raise;
O sing the song of harvest home;
the Lord your Saviour, praise,
the Lord, your Saviour, praise.

By God's own hand the rising land
was formed and still abides,
and by His hand the harvest yields
to nourish and provide,
to nourish and provide.

The Lord our God is King of Kings,
above all gods enthroned;
the mountains high and depths of earth
by God alone are owned,
by God alone are owned.

O come, and bowing down to God,
our worship let us bring;
O come and kneel before the Lord,
our Maker and our King.
O come, give thanks and sing.

The Lord our God is King of Kings;
O come, come give thanks and sing.
