

Heaven's Embrace

Text & music: Sally DeFord

When shadows gather,
When shades of night descend,
I kneel to lay my burdens
At the Father's feet again,
I offer up my sorrow,
Entrust to Him my grief,
And at His touch my heart is filled with peace.

REFRAIN

Borne upon a prayer,
My soul is lifted up,
Enfolded in the arms
of everlasting love,
Cradled in His kindness,
Sheltered by His grace,
Like a child in heaven's embrace.

When heartaches linger
And tears I cannot stay,
I find my hope and refuge
In His presence as I pray;
No hurt beyond His healing,
No pain beyond His reach,
And at His touch my heart is filled with peace.
