

Love's Embrace

Text & Music: April Brahinsky

As we grow in understanding, letting Soul define our days,
As we seek to let the Christ-light lead us in all our ways,
Cleansing thought in Truth's sweet fountains, dissolving pride and hurt and fear,

We find ourself as Love's pure likeness, radiant, free, and clear.
We rejoice in perfect being, one with Mind, expressing Soul,
Seeing God's creation complete and ever whole.
We delight in Spirit's harmony, color, form, and grace,
Shown forth in unfolding beauty that holds all in Love's embrace.

When we seek the inspiration that heals us of all pain,
As we lift the condemnation that would bind as if a chain,
Then we know that we are guided by everlasting Love,
Revealed in and as true being – our selfhood from above.

We rejoice in perfect being one with Mind, expressing Soul,
Seeing God's creation complete and ever whole.
We delight in Spirit's harmony, colour, form, and grace,
Shown forth in unfolding beauty that holds all in Love's embrace –
That holds all eternally in Love's embrace.
