

On Wings of Faith

Text: Evelyn C. Markham

Music: Felix Mendelssohn Bartholdy, "On Wings of Song" Op. 34, No.2

On wings of faith uplifted, we come, O God, to Thee,
From paths of gloom where we drifted, Thy wonders of love to see;
The mist of Thy breath leaves the dewdrop on tiny blossoms fair, And countless beauties of nature reveal Thy tender care.

So let us follow the pathway that leadeth by waters still,
There to commune with Thy spirit and seek to do Thy will,
To see in Thy perfect creation, in tinted sunset and flow'r,
The splendour of Thy handiwork, the greatness of Thy love.

With doubt and fear subsiding, may we Thy glory see,
In heav'nly Love abiding,
and dwell in peace with Thee,
and dwell in sweet peace with Thee.
Sweet peace with Thee.
