

Soul's Art Healing You

Text: Godfrey John

Music: John F. Wilson

Along broad brush-strokes Soul erases pain;
Along your waiting stirs Her artistry.
And you are hushed to see Soul's likeness gain;
And you are whole to prove Her majesty.

Along your listening melts the voice of sin;
Along Soul's art you breathe the gospel air.
And Soul paints purity and health as one,
And She reveals your lovely likeness there.

Along broad brush-strokes Soul erases pain;
Along your waiting stirs Her artistry.
